

Plan for the evening:

Please note that the times below are in BST.

You can use this link to check what time the event starts in your local time zone

16:00 - Event starts, Welcome from the Team

16:10 - Invited Talk by Anne Scheel, Eindhoven University of Technology

16:40 - Panel Discussion

"The Influence of ECRs on the Changing Research Culture and Integrity"

Panellists:

Ben Bleasdale, Senior Policy and Advocacy Adviser at Wellcome Trust

Amy Orben, Research Fellow at the University of Cambridge

Jessica Butler, Research Fellow, University of Aberdeen

Emily Farran, Research Culture and Integrity Lead, University of Surrey

Half of the time dedicated to the panel will be for answering the audience's questions.

18:00 - Virtual Networking

This event is brought to you by the Surrey Reproducibility Society in collaboration with the core ReproducibiliTea Team.

Please don't hesitate to contact us with any queries at surrey_reproducibility@surrey.ac.uk

IAS | Institute of Advanced Studies

UNIVERSITY OF SURREY

ReproducibiliTea Virtual Meeting

May 29th, 16:00 BST

How can ECRs influence research culture and integrity?

- Invited Talk: Anne Scheel, Eindhoven University of Technology
- Open Panel Discussion: The influence of ECRs on the changing research culture and integrity. Panelists include:
 - Dr. Amy Orben, University of Cambridge
 - Dr. Ben Bleasdale, Wellcome Trust
 - Prof. Emily Farran, University of Surrey
 - Dr. Jessica Butler, University of Aberdeen

