

Time	Topic	Speaker
9:00	Registration & Morning Coffee/Tea
9:30	Welcome address	Arshdeep Singh, University of Surrey
9:40	Key AI-for-Good practices to enhance sustainability of AI	Dr Girmaw Abebe Tadesse, Microsoft
10:20	AI for Sustainable Energy Use	Prof Alex Rogers, University of Oxford
10:55	Coffee break / Networking (Poster presentations)	Poster presenters (in-person networking)
11:15	How AI is making our climate change predictions more sustainable?	Jeff Adie, NVIDIA Corporation
11:55	How is the University of Surrey contributing towards AI & Sustainability?	Dr Erick Sperandio, University of Surrey
12:25	Business As Usual” or “Brave New World”? Unlocking the power of AI for sustainability	Dr Jill Juergensen, University of Surrey
12:55	Lunch break (photo) & Networking (Poster presentations)	Poster presenters (in-person networking)
13:50	Bigger Isn’t Always Better: A sociotechnical perspective on AI for health	Dr Hannah Mary Thomas T, CMC Vellore, India
14:20	Monitoring Environmental Impact of Machine Listening Systems: Why and How?	Prof Romain Serziel, University of Lorraine, France
15:00	Coffee break (Poster presentations)	Poster presenters (in-person networking)
15:20	Dimensions of efficiency in machine learning	Dr Nitish Mital, Dr Daniel Mannion, The Alan Turing Institute
16:00	Panel discussion	Panel
16:35	Closing remarks	Arshdeep Singh, University of Surrey

