

Programme for Workshop on Measuring Depression: From Methodology to Clinical Application

Innovation for Health Building, Room 02 IFH 01

Thursday 5th June | 9.45am - 4.10pm

Thursday 5 th June
9.45am-10.15am	Arrival and Registration
10.15am-10.25am	Introduction and Welcome	Prof Roi Cohen Kadosh, Head, School of Psychology, University of Surrey
10.25am-11.10am	Keynote: Revisiting the theoretical and methodological foundations of depression measurement	Chair: Dr Lydia Poole Dr Eiko Fried, Leiden University
11.10am-11.30am	Coffee Break
11.30am-12.20am	Paper Session: Using longitudinal data sources and cohort studies to measure depression	Chair: Dr Lydia Poole Dr Amy Ronaldson, King's College London Dr Jennifer Dykxhoorn, UCL Dr Jorge de la Torre, King's College London
12.20pm-12.45pm	Patient Public Involvement Session: Lived experiences of depression assessment	Chair: Dr Rose Rickford Ms Eleanor Levy, PPI representative Ms Mandy Peponis, PPI representative Ms Charlotte Stevens, PPI representative
12.45pm-1.30pm	Lunch Break
1.30pm-2.00pm	Early-Career Researcher Flash talks	Chair: Dr Andrea Martinez Mr Chris Lo, King's College London Ms Rumandeep Kaur, University of Surrey Mr Henry Delamain, UCL Ms Niamh Molly, King's College London
2.00pm-2.50pm	Paper Session: Clinical applications and digital advancements in depression measurement	Chair: Dr Mel Ramasawmy Dr Adam Geraghty, University of Southampton Dr Yuezhou Zhang, King's College London Prof Chris Dowrick, University of Liverpool
2.50pm-3.10pm	Coffee Break
3.10pm-4.00pm	Symposium: Cultural sensitivity and depression screening	Chair: Dr Hannah Frith Ms Madiha Sajid, PPI representative Dr Rose Rickford, University of Surrey Dr Andrea Martinez, University of Surrey Dr Mel Ramasawmy, Queen Mary University of London
4.00pm-4.10pm	Final Comments and Close	Dr Lydia Poole, University of Surrey