

IDENTITY WITHOUT NATIONALITY

UNIVERSITY OF SURREY

Institute of Advanced Studies

WORKSHOP & ART SHOWCASE >>> 21/10/26

University of Surrey
Sociology
Hub
46AD03

Exploring identity in a world shaped by climate displacement

Join an artist-led workshop and showcase sponsored by the Institute for Advanced Studies (IAS) examining how identity evolves when land, nationality, and belonging are disrupted by climate change.

Light refreshments will be provided.

About the Workshop

A participatory session exploring:

- Climate refugees & displacement
- Identity beyond land and borders
- Belonging and socio-political structures

Includes:

- Artist Talk
- Group Discussion
- Creative Activity: Passport Artwork

No experience needed

Materials provided

Contribute to a co-created artwork

14:00-
15:00

15:30-
16:30

About the Showcase

Exhibition of co-created artwork + artist's artworks

Artist introduction

Audience reflection and

Q&A chaired by Dr

Anastasia Loukianov

BHAVANI ESAPATHI

Bhavani Esapathi is a disabled artist whose socially engaged practice focuses on climate refugees, migrants' access to healthcare, and invisible disabilities, currently IAS Fellow. She previously served as President for Science + Arts at the British Science Association.*

SCAN THE QR CODE TO REGISTER FOR THE WORKSHOP

